

Judy A. Durkin is vice president of financial planning and analysis at Raytheon Company. Raytheon Company (NYSE: RTN), with 2008 sales of $23.2 billion, is a technology and innovation leader specializing in defense, homeland security and other government markets throughout the world. With headquarters in Waltham, Mass., Raytheon employs 73,000 people worldwide.

Durkin is responsible for leading the company's financial planning and forecasting processes, including monthly forecasts, the annual operating plan and long-term financial plans. She is also responsible for analysis of the company's financial data, working closely with Raytheon's businesses and the company's senior leadership team.

During her career at Raytheon, Durkin has held various financial positions of increasing responsibility in Missile Systems, Electronics Systems and the global headquarters.

Biography

She joined Raytheon in 1982 as a member of the company's Financial Leadership Development Program. Today she leads that program, serving as a mentor for its participants as well as for other employees across the company. She also leads the company's Finance Learning Program and personally instructs various courses each year.

Durkin assumed the role of president of Raytheon Women's Network for the Northeast in the fall of 2007, and also leads the company's Diversity Council for corporate employees.

She serves as vice-chairperson on the board of directors for the Academy of Notre Dame in Tyngsboro, Mass., as well as chairperson on the Academy's marketing committee and member of its finance committee.

Durkin holds a bachelors degree in accounting from Boston College.